Professional Development and Staff Development Definitions

1.3.21 Professional Development refers to trainings Bargaining Unit Members participate in to further their professional practice. Professional Development may either be offered outside the school day, with compensation, or during the school day.

1.3.22 Staff Development involves all Bargaining Unit Members and pertains to staff functions and/or schoolwide initiatives that affect and/or benefit all students. Each staff development presentation shall not exceed one-third (1/3) of the staff meeting minutes per topic, as outlined in Article 2.7.1.

These new definitions shall be added to Article 1.3 in the next collective bargaining agreement publication.
